DUKE DE RICHELIEU AND BRIDE DINE AT FRIEND'S HOME HERE

Scion of French Nobility and Duchess Spend Night at Old Point Comfort.

After the brilliant wedding of the leke de Richelieu, one of the proudest to Washington, had supper here with riends, and took the night boat for jot Lassiter, Old Point Comfort immediately after-ing for home yesterday afternoon," sald Mrs. Snowden Ashford, wife of the municipal architect, who attended the cerethat they would come to Washington after the ceremony, and go to Old Point Comfort from the Capital last night. I day. am positive the duke and duchess did net stay in Washington over night." To Go to Florida.

From Old Point the couple will go to Florida, and thence to New Orleans, tarian Church. It is the duke's desire to visit some of It is the duke's desire to visit some of the French sections of the United States before he leaves for France, and small party informally at luncheon to-he anticipates spending two or three day at her residence, in Twenty-first weeks in Louisiana.

"It is probable they will visit all the leading cities of the South before coming North again. I do not expect they will spend any time in Washington en route to New York before sailing for

Other wedding guests in the city said the ywere entirely ignorent of the picus of the duke and duchess, and the French embassy also professed lack of knowledge of the duke's whereabouts.

famous Cardinal Richelleu, no attache of the French embassy was present at the Baltimore ceremony yes-Mant event of the season in the Monu-

Paul Pearsall, Miss Pota Dr. and Mrs. G. Lloyd and Col. and Mrs. Henry these, however, only Mr. and nont, Mrs. Ashford and Miss attended the ceremony.

CARRIERS MAY

Under Consideration.

Postmaster General Hitchcock is ponfering the advisability of adopting the plan advocated by Dr. Dana Durand, Director of the Census, for using mail carriers to take the /1920 census, Mr. Hitchcock is expected to make a statement concerning the matter soon. Dr. Durand's plan is formally set forth in his annual report to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor. The Census Bureau chief urges that his scheme is particularly feasible in respect to taking the census in country districts, rural free delivery carriers being better acquainted with the population of the countryside than others The chief objection to the present system of gathering the names is that supervisors and enumerators are almost always inexperienced.

OBITUARY NOTES.

ERNEST L. HARVEY.

The last rites for Ernest L. Harvey. who died on Friday, will be solemnized tomorrow morning at his home, is nual bands. Fourteenth street northwest. The burial Club at Rauscher's.

MRS. MELISSA A. CONKLE.

The funeral of Mrs. Melissa A. Conkle, sixty-three years old, who died on Thursday, will take place Monday afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Baker, 400 Fifth street northeast. Interment will be in Congression al Cemetery.

MRS. ANNIE E. W. LAWS.

Puneral services for Mrs. Annie Elizabeth Waddy Laws were conducted this norning from the Zion Baptist Church. Interment was private. Mrs. Laws was the wife of the Rev. Samuel Laws. She leaves three sisters and a brother.

WILLIAM B. HASSENBERG.

News has been received here of the death of William B. Hassenberg in Sommerville, Mass. Mr. Hassenberg was an employe of the supply division of the Postoffice Department. More than a year ago Mr. Hassenberg was injured while at work and left this city for a rest at his home. He was expected to return here tomorrow. He leaves a wife. The funeral will be in Provinceton, Mass., on Monday.

LOCAL MENTION

"The Burning Brand," "The Masked Ball." Double feature today. Virginia

NOTICE TO WOMEN alling hair, oily hair, dandruff, tight p. etc., correctly treated by experts at the offices of

HATTIE M. SHACKLETTE

1002-4 F St. J. W. Phone M. 3474.
Only Women and Children Treated.

EF Outstanding tickets for treetments will NOT be valid after June 15, 1913.

Luncheons at Chevy Chase Club Follow Motor Trips in Country

SEE.

100

MRS. JOSEPH LEITER.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter have got liams, and Miss Dorothy Williams, to Hot Springs, Ark., for an exte at an informal luncheon today.

Personal Mention.

Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. at the Eighth

Street Temple.

The address of the afternoon will be

Announcement has been made of th

Immediately after the wedding cere-nony Mr. and Mrs. Simmons left Washington for a wedding trip and upon their return to Washington will be at home at 623 Nincteenth street.

and a few intimute friends

General Wotherspoon and Major Allen Among Hosts at Delightful Parties.

UMEROUS delightful lunche parties were given today at the Chevy Chase Club following motor trips through the neigh oring country. Maj. Gen. W. W. Wotherspoon, U.

S. A., and Mrs. Wotherspoon enterscions of the French nobility, to Miss tained at function today Captain and Elinor Douglas Wise, in Baltimore yesterday ,the bridal couple came directly Tuttle, Miss Bruce, Miss Jessica Bruce, Congressman Charles Talcott, and Ma-

Major Henry T. Allen, U. S. Mrs. Allen entertained a party in compliment to their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wiborg, of New York. Among the additional guests were the Misses Allen and Mr. Totten.

mony, this morning. "While she told of friends to the club for luncheon today, none of us any definite news of her and Mrs. A. Garrison McClin-Mrs. Robert M. Thomps wedding trip, I know that a journey to tock entertained a party of young people Old Point Comfort was the first event for their daughter, Miss McClintock, Mrs. on the program. I heard it gossiped Willis Moore and Miss Frances Lippitt, daughter of Senator Lippitt of Rhode Island, also were luncheon hostesses

Mrs. Taft attended services at St. John's Episcopal Church, as usual, and the President, accompanied by his secretary, Mr. Hilles, want to the Uni-

A series of Leuten mu be given at the New Willard in the red stay. During their absence Col. John From under the patronage of Mrs. Nich R. Williams, U. S. A., and Mrs. Wilon. urder the patronage of Mrs. Nicholas Anderson, Mrs. C. J. Bell, Mrs. Sydney Ballou, Mrs. A. E. Batez, Mrs. James Bell, Mrs. Bartiett Cromwell. Mrs. Henry D. Clayton, Mrs. Albert A. Clamons, Mrs. Henry F Dimock, Mrs. W F Dennis, Mrs. W. Thornwall La-Glover, Mrs. William Goddard, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. William H. Mrs. M. A. Hanna, Mme. terday, which was performed by Car-dinal Gibbons and was the most bril-T. R. Hutchinson, Mrs. Perry Heath Hauge, Mrs. W. P. Hall. Mrs. F. S. T. B. Hutchinson, Mrs. Perry Heath, Mrs. Rockwood Hoar, Mrs. Hennen Jen-Among the Washingtonians invited to the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mrs. William S. Reyburn, Mrs. Cuno Report Description of the Washingtonians invited to the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mrs. William S. Reyburn, Mrs. Cuno Report Description of the Processing States of the Processing Stat

Rudolph, Mrs. John Reyburn, Mrs. W. B. Ridgley, Mrs. G. F. Schutt, Mrs. Mat-thew T. Scott, Mrs. Charles Shepard, Mrs. George Sutherland, Mrs. Gilbank Twigg, Mrs. Copley Thaw, Mrs. Oscar Underwood, Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell, Mrs. T. A. Williams, Miss Flora Wilson, Mrs. Nelson Read Johnson, Mrs. Charles J. Johnston, Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge, Mrs. Charles Linthicum, Mrs. L. T. Mann, Mrs. W. W. Mathewson, Mrs. C. C. McChord, Mrs. James Dudley Morgan, Mrs. S. C. Neale, Mrs. Henry T. Oxnard, Mrs. M. M. Parker, Mrs. A. J. Henry T. Oxnard, Mrs. M. M. Parker, Mrs. A. J. Heim, and Oscar M. Lazrus, of Brook-lyn, took place today at noon at the pan, Mrs. S. C. Neale, Mrs. Henry T. Oxnard, Mrs. M. Parker, Mrs. A. J. Persons, Mrs. Frank Pleadwell, Mrs. Henry A. Peckham, Mrs. H. C. Perkins, Mrs. Peyton Russell, Mrs. C. W. Fair-fax, Mrs. Lisner, Mrs. R. Golden Donaldson, Mrs. George Gordon, Mrs. Hayes and Atlantic City the young couple will breckenridge, Miss Hilda Fletcher, Miss Breckenridge, Miss Hilda Fle Breckenridge, Miss Hilda Fletcher, Miss Suggested by Br. Durand, Harriet Winslow, Mrs. Fred Dubois, Mrs. W. B. Lamar, Mrs. John Larner, Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. Nelson

> Mrs. H. C. Wiley, Mrs. Howard Nyman, and Mrs. E. L. Koon. The dates for the teas will be Thursdays, February 13, February 20, Feoruary 27, March 6, and March 13. The artists will be Miss Christine Miller. contralto; David Mannes and Clara Mannes, in a sonata récital; Mine. Corinne Rider-Kelsey, soprano; Miss Dagmar Rubner, pianist, and Horatio Con-

Perin, Mrs. James Stevenson, Mrs. F. B.

Moran, Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison

Mrs. Samson L. Faison will entertain at a luncheon Thursday to meet her sister-in-law, Mrs. Sowers, who is a recent bride.

The League of American Pen Women have sent out cards for Thursday evening, February 12, at 8 o'clock at the Hamilton School, 225 Fifteenth street, to hear Miss Sophie Irene Loeb, of New York city. Miss Loeb, who has won considerable fame as a newspaper and magazine writer, will arrive in Washington Wednesday to be the guest of Mrs. Josiah Quincy Kern, president of the League of American Pen Women. On Saturday evening, Miss Loeb will be the guest of honor and speaker at the seventh anomorrow morning at his home, 1325 nual banquet of the College Women's Miss Jean Wilson has returned to Washington from Richmond, Va. where she gave a dramatic reading at the Woman's Club. This was Miss Wilson's first visit in Virginia and she was heartily received.

The auxiliary of the University of Pennsylvania alumni have cards out for a reception to Dr. J. H. Penniman, the vice provost of the university, on February 12, at 8:30 until 11 o'clock at 1219 Connecticut avenue. All alumni and their wives in Washington are invited.

The Sahlin Corset The Perfect Form and Corset Combined For Sale By

R. E. HANLON

Congressman Henry D. Clayton of Alabama and Mrs. Clayton will be hosts at a reception tomorrow after noon from 4 until 7 o'clock at 1746 H street, in compliment to Mrs. John Downing, of Georgetown, Ky., who will arrive in Washington this evening to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton.

Madam de la Rossa, wife of the cou selor of the French embassy, will end in Raleigh have made his life miser tertain informally at tea Thursday able for the last three weeks,

Much entertaining will be done in connection with the concert of the Philadelphia Orchestra under Leopold Sto kowski, at the New National Theater, on Thursday afternoon, when Ysaye will be the soloist.

Mme. Louden will entertain at a dinner on Wednesday evening, in compli ment to Mr. and Mrs. Stokowski. Ysave has been unable to accept invitations previously upon his visits here, but this time he will come share of the entertaining.

In addition to those who have taken boxes and groups of seats in the audience are the German Ambassa Countess von Bernstorff, Brigadier General and Mrs. Slocum, Congressman and Mrs. Longworth, Congressman and Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, Mrs. Perry Belmont, Mrs. E. G. G. Slater, and Mrs. Andrew Wheeler, of set, and particularly those of the navy, are interested in the opening of the parents and sister of Mrs. Lelter, are Lenten Skating Club at the Arcade, at occupying the Leiter country place in 3:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Sev eral of the most popular young officers of the navy will appear as floor man agers for the opening, all of them expert skaters, and the Mayflower Ban

The proceeds are for the benefit of the Navy Relief Corps, of which Mrs. The Washington Alliance of Jewish Frank E. Beatty is chairman, and as Women will hold its monthly meeting the hours in no wise interfere with school, a lot of the younger girls also enlisted in the class.

made by Miss Julia C. Lathrop, the head The fifty students comprising the Glee of the Children's Bureau, on "Some and Mandolin Clubs from the Columoblems of Child Welfare." Miss Janet bla University of New York city will E. Richards will speak on phases of receive a hearty welcome in Washing-"Woman's Suffrage." Miss Hattle Stern ton when they come to give their two will present a paper on current topics, concerts in the ball room of the New will present a paper on current topics, while the musical entertainment will be Willard on the afternon and evening of provided by Miss Blanche Muir Dal- February 22. gleish. A social hour will conclude the

Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick will entertain at a tea in their honor and other entertainments are being arranged for from the various hunt clubs in South and East are expected. The committee in charge consists of Gist Blair, chairman; John F. Wilkins, W. Corcoran Eustis, Robert M. Thomp son, George Howard, J. William Henry O. P. Jackson, George F. Downey, Jer-

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ganss, who have been spending the past few weeks in Atlantic City, returned to their home in Mrs. W. Frank, of Norfolk, is in Washington spending a few days with Mrs. Al Sigmund, of Twenty-seventh moe N. Bonaparte, Hugh S. Legare, William F. Hitt, Murray A. Cobb, Wal ter R. Tuckerman, Richardson Clover Edson Bradley, Lawrence Townsend J. Henri de Sibour, and William C

Dates for At Homes.

Mrs. Henry Straus and daughter, who have been a miding the past month in Washington with Mrs. A. M. Baer, of the Netherlands, returned to her home in Richmond today.

Mrs. Harry Loeb, of Takoma Park, has returned to her home, after spending the past week in Atlantic City. Mrs. Steven Beckwith Ayres and Miss Janette Ayres will be at home informally on Tuesdays, in February, at 1629 marriage of Miss Marie G. Armor and Francis A. Simmons. The wedding took place Tuesday morning, February 4, at Massachusetts avenue.

St. Matthew's Catholic Church, the Rev. John M. Cooper officiating in the pres-ence of the members of the families Mrs. D. U. Fletcher, of Florida, will not receive on the fourth Thursday of this month, but will be at home next Thursday, with her daughter, Mrs. Kemp, at 1627 Sixteenth street. -4-

A. Daugherty and Miss Daugherty will be at home Tuesday afternoon, at the Farragut,

LEGISLATOR TRIED TO ABOLISH TIPS; WAITERS GET EVEN

Life Miserable for Him in Raleigh Hotels and Cafes.

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 9.-Because he introduced a bill in the North Carolina says waiters of hotels and restaurants "I gave a waiter a nickle," said Mr. Stewart, "and he gave it back to me got the cold storage kind, and when I got the cold storage kind, and when I sent them back to the kitchen I got worse ones in exchange."

"They made me wait until everybody else in the restaurant had been served before they waited on me. My coffee was stale and bitter. I could not get hot bread like other people around me, and my steaks were so tought I could not eat them. When I complained I was told there was nothing any better in the house, although I could see people all around me enjoying good food."

The bill passed the house, but was killed in the Senate by one vote. A similar bill probably will be introduced before the legislature adjourns.

He refused to accept less than 15 cents. When I asked him for fresh eggs I

EXPELLED BY BABY

President of New York Board of ducation Says Rule Will Not Be Changed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.-If a married woman school teacher in the city o New York becomes a mother, necessi-tating her prolonged absence, she is automatically dropped, charges of negect of duty being brought against her. This is made clear today by Thomas W. Churchill, the recently elected presi W. Churchill, the recently elected president of the Board of Education. The New York City Federation of Women's Clubs interested itself in the case of an Erasmus High School teacher, who is shortly to become a mother and was refused a year's leave of absence. The club adopted a resolution to be sent to the board of education, stating that they considered this action "contrary to her happiness as an individual and to the public welfare."

Mr. Churchill said that in all such cases in the elementary grades where April 4 has been selected as the date for the annual hunt ball of the Chevy Chase Club, which will, as usual, be held at the club house.

A cotillion, the favors of which will all be emblematic of the hunt, will follow general dancing. Special cars will be run for the accommodation of those attending. A large contingent of guests of absence, claiming she wished to and G. H. Meehan, twenty-five years and G. H. Meehan, twenty-five years and G. H. Meehan, twenty-five years and G. H. Meehan, twenty-five years. of absence, claiming she wished to study, and during her absence a child was born, the board of education would have no legal power to dismiss her. But if the facts of the case were known, the woman absenting herself merely during the birth and nursing of her child, would be dropped.

The three men went to the harbor to try Mechan's new ice racer. Leaving the Yacht Club, the boat flew across

Suburban Club Plans To Organize Soon

Directors of the newly formed Subur birectors of the newly formed Subur-ban Club discussed organization details at a meeting today at the Octagon Club, 233 Eighteenth street. President Harry King made a tentative announcement of the personnel of committees. The club, which will take over the golf links formerly used by the Columbia Country Club, plans to incorporate in a few days.

RIOTOUS STUDENTS MOB HALL AND TRY TOBREAK UP DANCE

and Town Rowdies Repulsed by Fraternity Men.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Feb. 2.—A mob of 500 youths, composed of town rowdies and the rougher University of Michigan students, stormed Waferman Gymnasium when the big "J" hop was in progress and after two hours of rioting were vanquished by a handful of fraternity men in evening dress, led by a big man believed to be Macklin, coach big man believed to be Macklin, coach house.

Harry Melven, who gave himself up the "small navy" men in the sterious are chagrined today. They at terday, declaring that he was a repentant wife deserter, and was wanted by the Philadelphia police for abandon-ing his spouse and two little babes, had his freedom forced upon him today, when Captain Hollinberger, in harsh to hold a sure-enough or ternity men in evening dress, led by a big man believed to be Macklin, coach house. introduced a bill in the North Carolina of 500 youths, composed of tawn rowdies Legislature making it illegal to give and the rougher University of Michigan the fight a door of the gymnasium was smashed and a score of persons were

During the furious fight the musicians kept up such a terrific din that only a comparatively few among several hundred pirts in ball gowns and university men who were dancing knew it was go-

Mob Storms the Door. was at its height when the crowd of 300 students, known as "independents," and 300 town youths whom they had reand so town youths whom they had re-cruited, gathered at the door and, with hoots and yells, demanded admission. The doors were locked in their faces, but they obtained a piece of timber, and, using it as a battering ram, broke down the door. Marry of the rioters were cut by the flying glass. Janitor Wields Club.

This gave them admittance to the out-side corridor of the building, but be-tween them and the dance floor was a tween them and the dance floor was a double door. This was guarded by a janitor, who, wielding an Indian club and aiming the nozzle of a chemical fire extinguisher with the other hand, kept the mob at bay. Many a head felt the crack of the club.

Until after 3 o'clock in the morning the battle raged, the fraternity men fighting manfully and successfully to keep the intruders from breaking up the hop, the biggest event of the year.

Several of the student members of the mob have been identified and will be expelled.

ICE BOAT HITS PIER

Snow Blinds Trio Trying Out New Craft on Frozen Lake

and G. H. Meehan, twenty-five

The Usual Hold-Up.

THE

"Well, did you go to the place for your vacation I mentioned, and did the farmer and his wife take you in?"
"Take us in! I should say they did take us in. A professional gold brick man could not have improved on their methods."—Baltimore American.

TRIES TO GET RIDE TO PHILADELPHIA BY ASSERTING GUILT

Solon Complains They've Made University of Michigan Youths Police Captain Orders Self- Meeting Called to Bind Demo Styled Wife Deserter From Station House.

Robert Boardman, chief of detectives, ordered Meiven freed, when he became certain of a hunch that Meiven was seeking a free trip to Philadelphia.

Captain Boardman wired the Philadelphia authorities, giving them the statement of Meiven, and asking if he was wanted for desertion in that city. Today the answer came from Robert D. Cameron, Philadelphia superintendent of detectives, that not only was Meiven not wanted by them, but that they had no record of him, did not know of the alleged abandoned wife and babes, and had never sought him.

Probation, But She Is Icy.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.-"Oh, what's the use, anyway?" morns John McKay, whose wife Katherine is suing for a separation, despite the fact that he lived up to every pledge of a trial separation agreement and has a minister and mid-week worship, a preacher of the gospel of reformation—and yet his wife won't live with him. Twelve do lars a week alimony was awarded to her yesterday by Sopreme Court Jus-tice Hendrick pending the trial of her separation suit.

McKay is employed by Kerr & Co., a Stock Exchange firm. A year ago he made an agreement with his wife, he alleges, to live apart from her one year, provided she would return to him if he didn't drink a drop during the interval.

Mrs. McKay's lawyer, R. H. Truax, and her husband's lawyer, Marcus H. Marks, were selected as the judges of McKay's conduct. The trial separation ended on November 4 last and both attorneys declared that McKay had "made good." Despite this, Mrs. McKay declined to live again with her husband.

husband.
The Rev. Adem McDonald Reoch.
pastor of the Forest Avenue Congresational Church, the Bronx, made an affidavit that he has known McKay for fourteen years. For six months, he said, McKay has been superintendent of the Sunday school in his church and Mr. McKay's attorney blames Martha Hollywood, a sister of Mrs. McKay, for a member of the church board, the domestic strife. He says she kept a diary in which she jotted down daily everything she thought McKay had done.

One Do for Two.

"You have been a bad boy. Tommie, and I will have to punish you."
"Can't you wait, mamma. until I have another tooth pulled, and then one hollering will do for both!"—Yonkers

FAILURE OF GAUCUS

crats to 'No Battleship' Program Does Not Materialize.

atter soon will bring in a nga bill, the rank and file cratic side of the House at was the last message of the genia's mate, Herbert Wood, wife, a resident of the Caymon I confirming the loss of the sel which has been reported missing she salled from Guantanamo, Cu After weeks of drifting the message from the sea, which claimed the lives of Herbert Wood. Capt. E. B. Scott.

Deckhouse Tells of Missing Ship's Destruction.

and the rest of the vessels crew, floated ashore at Monaco.

Neither the date, nor the natthe steamer which ran down the tagenia is given, but Wood's mindicates that the brave little rode out destructive hurricane.

ALL SHOES

Before We Move Into OUR NEW F STREET STORE

Our shoe business has outgrown our present quarters. We are going to move to F street, where we will have more room. It is easier to move money that shoes-so Every Shoe, Oxford and Slipper Priced at $1.89 or $2.29-Values $3.50 to $5. All sizes for those who buy tomorrow. All best styles.

9th and F Streets 4th Floor, Wash. Loan and Trust Bldg

Chiropody and Electroloysis

Phone Main 453